A Letter from Our President

Though the reasons why our donors give are often very personal, the effects of our collective giving are often profound and obvious, shaping the landscape, culture, and economy of our community in positive and lasting ways. As we reflect on what we accomplished together in 2019, we value the trust you place in us as your charitable partner and the impact we are making together that will be felt for years to come.

Here are a few of our collective accomplishments from 2019:

- The Steven Tanger Center for the Performing Arts will officially open later this spring. Advanced sales of Broadway season ticket subscriptions reached 16,000+, an extraordinary feat for a first-year venue. This state-of-the-art facility will transform the economy and culture in our area.
- The work of Expanding Community Giving (ECG) has been very successful in engaging more donors and increasing fundholders among racially and ethnically diverse residents. Since its inception, more than 19 funds have been opened for a total of $739,533. Later this year, the Strategic Black Endowment is scheduled for launch by several of our donors.
- The NC Triad Chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP) recognized the Triad Pan Asian American Network, The Immigrant Fund, and The Future Fund as the first recipients of the Inclusion, Diversity, Equity, and Access (IDEA) award at its annual philanthropy luncheon.
- A new grantmaking partnership was launched, Giving Together. This program connects interested fundholders to causes in the community, allowing them to see these critical needs, how they are being addressed, and how they could directly fund that work.
- To deepen our relationships with professional advisor partners, we began hosting a study group of advisors and gift planners that builds philanthropic knowledge and capacity in Greensboro through the Chartered Advisor in Philanthropy® program.

This report further shows the breadth of our efforts on behalf of the community we all call home.

I'd like to thank our Board Chair, Ron Milstein, for his outstanding leadership over the last two years. We're all looking forward to working with our new Board Chair, Anita Bachmann.

Lastly, I want to thank you again for your support and commitment to helping us "plant the shade trees" under which countless future generations will sit.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "H. Walker Sanders". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

H. Walker Sanders, President, Community Foundation of Greater Greensboro

Strategic Initiatives

Our strategic initiatives are a way for the Community Foundation of Greater Greensboro to translate its firsthand knowledge of community issues, needs, and opportunities into action. Some of our initiatives are still in their infancy, while others have grown beyond our walls as members of the community have embraced and joined them. Nothing makes us prouder than to see the impact our initiatives have on quality of life for everyone in Greater Greensboro.

To support our initiatives with your time, resources, or talents, visit us at cfgg.org, and click on "Get Involved."

Building Stronger Neighborhoods

Through neighborhood development and grant-making, Building Stronger Neighborhoods (BSN) supports Greensboro communities as they mobilize assets to enhance their quality of life. BSN is supported by the Building Stronger Neighborhoods Coalition comprised of the Cemala Foundation, the Cone Health Foundation, the Greensboro Public Library, and the Community Foundation of Greater Greensboro.

Expanding Community Giving

Greensboro is like many communities across America experiencing an increase in ethnic and racial diversity. Every ethnic group has its own giving culture and traditions. At the Community Foundation, we affirm these traditions and work to become better informed about how we enter into relationships with donors of color and engage them in philanthropy. Expanding Community Giving is how we are reframing the narrative of what philanthropy looks like for these donors in Greensboro, allowing us to embrace a diverse donor base as partners to grow our operations and efforts to advance diversity, inclusion, and equity.

Future Fund

Future Fund is a permanent grantmaking endowment made up of young professionals who are investing their time, energy, and charitable dollars into making Greensboro a great place to live, work, and play. “Funders” can participate in a variety of social, networking, and charitable events for an investment of as little as $150/year. Future Fund also hosts the annual Future Fund 10 LIVE, a “Shark Tank meets philanthropy” event that invites 10 local nonprofits to give a three-minute pitch to a live voting audience to win cash prizes.

Why I Give

Triad Adult and Pediatric Medicine, Inc. Endowment

Michelle Lewis knows she isn't going to live forever. But her mission to provide affordable healthcare to vulnerable populations will live on in perpetuity. That's because, as CEO of Triad Adult and Pediatric Medicine, Inc. (TAPM), a nonprofit that provides medical and behavioral health services to residents of Guilford County regardless of their ability to pay, Michelle created an organizational endowment through CFGG that ensures the future of her organization. She also plans for TAPM to continue reinvesting in itself by contributing to its endowment annually, and she encourages others who share her passion for community-sponsored healthcare to put their donations to work through CFGG, too.

"Giving to organizations through CFGG is a safe way to give. You know the Foundation's track record is solid, and that confidence carries over to the organizations they partner with."

MICHELLE LEWIS, CEO,
TRIAD ADULT AND PEDIATRIC MEDICINE, INC.

Housing

The Community Foundation's housing efforts are focused on convening, grantmaking, and advocacy. In partnership with the City of Greensboro and other key stakeholders, our goal is to leverage resources for maximum impact.

Guilford Nonprofit Consortium

The Guilford Nonprofit Consortium is a collaborative of nonprofit organizations, large and small, that fosters mutual assistance and support in reaching our shared goals by providing opportunities for education, collaboration, networking, and celebration. The Community Foundation is a funder and fiscal home for the Consortium. It is also supported by the Weaver Foundation, Cone Health Foundation, Cemala Foundation, Foundation for a Healthy High Point, Hayden-Harman Foundation, Reich Family Foundation, Bryan Foundation, Lincoln Financial, Congdon Family Foundation, and the High Point Community Foundation.

Public Art Endowment

The Public Art Endowment is a permanent fund at the Community Foundation of Greater Greensboro and has become one of the few privately funded endowments in the nation created solely to bring public art to the community. Stewardship is provided by a group of Trustees who are involved in all aspects of the endowment, including selection of artworks and development of programming, as well as advocacy for the Endowment and its mission.

Teen Grantmaking Council

Teen Grantmaking Council provides an opportunity for high school students across Greater Greensboro to gain leadership experience, connect with other area youth, voice their opinions, and make a difference by becoming the decision-makers for youth-directed projects that receive grants to address community issues.

Women to Women

This is Greensboro's first permanent grantmaking endowment created by women for women who are motivated to improve the lives of other women and their families in our community. Each year, the fund awards high-impact grants to programs, organizations, and projects that create positive and measurable results. Since 2010, the Women to Women Endowment Fund has granted close to $1 million to over 35 programs, transforming the lives of women and girls and improving the well-being of our entire community.

Workforce Initiatives

The Community Foundation is involved with several, different workforce initiatives that join business leaders, educators, workforce development service providers, and donors in an effort to accelerate skills and talent development so our community is able to create the skilled workers needed to fill jobs today and for the future. These initiatives include:

EASTERN TRIAD WORKFORCE INITIATIVE

Eastern Triad Workforce Initiative is a public-private partnership that provides apprenticeship and on-the-job training to meet employers' needs, prepares young people for in-demand careers, and enables people already in the workforce to secure better paying jobs.

GUILFORD APPRENTICESHIP PARTNERS

Guilford Apprenticeship Partners, the fastest-growing youth apprenticeship program in North Carolina, is a collaboration between the Community Foundation of Greater Greensboro, Greensboro Chamber of Commerce, Business High Point-Chamber of Commerce, Guilford County Schools, Guilford Technical Community College, and more than 30 local companies.

SAY YES TO EDUCATION - GUILFORD

Say Yes Guilford is a nonprofit that revitalizes communities by helping them give every eligible public high school graduate access to college or other postsecondary scholarships. Say Yes Guilford community partnerships also make available supports and services to develop the gifts and talents of each child.

Donors and Funds

No matter why someone chooses to give, the Community Foundation of Greater Greensboro offers several options for how they can give—through donor-advised funds, community endowments, specialty funds, and many more. We offer a unique means for donors to help make a difference in the ways that matter to them while also achieving financial or tax advantages. On the following pages, you can see the numerous individuals and organizations who are giving to, through, and with the Community Foundation.

Why I Give

Thomas R. & Linda E. Sloan Fund

A lifelong chess player, Tom Sloan believes there are countless skills you can learn through this game. Tom approached the Foundation with an idea for a bequest that would fund chess lessons for underprivileged children. He was met with an unexpected, "No." As in, "Not after you leave us—we want to help you start this now!" CFGG made introductions to personnel at Guilford County Schools who not only helped Tom launch the program, they got chess added to the second-grade curriculum. Thanks to the generosity of the Sloans and the connections of CFGG, Chess in the Schools is in five Title 1 schools across Guilford County with plans to expand into 20 this year.

"The connections that CFGG has throughout the community are invaluable to anyone who has a specific project in mind but doesn't know where or with whom to start."

TOM SLOAN

Why I Give

Terry Stuart Miller Fund

Terry Miller loved basset hounds. He owned four of them (though he would probably say they owned him) and was actively involved with organizations devoted to this lovable breed. He even dreamed of buying land and building a facility where basset hounds could receive care for the range of health issues that affect them. While he didn't live to see this dream fulfilled, Terry did mention CFGG in his will as the place where an endowment could be established to promote the welfare of basset hounds. Today, nonprofits that share Terry's love of basset hounds benefit from grants made from his special interest endowment—an act of giving that will live on in perpetuity.

CFGG does the work of many: fielding and evaluating grant requests, vetting grantseekers, and following up with recipients to ensure funds are being used to honor your wishes.

Why I Give

Suresh and Jane Chandra Fund

When Suresh Chandra was approaching his 80th birthday, he decided to celebrate by giving a gift to the community instead of himself. Suresh was born in India, but has lived and worked in Greensboro for the majority of his life. As the recipient of scholarships that brought him to the U.S. and career opportunities that, at the time, were unheard of for anyone of Indian origin, he says he feels morally obligated to give back to the community that has given him so much. So, when his milestone birthday rolled around, Suresh and his wife, Jane, marked the occasion by creating an unrestricted endowment fund that will enable CFGG to give money wherever the need is greatest in the community this couple holds so dear.

"CFGG serves as this wonderful vehicle through which you can really help the community. My hope is that more people learn about its programs and choose to contribute, too."

SURESH CHANDRA
