

Building Stronger Neighborhoods
Grants Awarded
2001- 2015
Total $421,176

2015 ($32,286)

Charles B. Aycock Neighborhood Association, $1,465, Community Garden Expansion and Upkeep

Claremont Courts Resident Council, $1,800, Community Celebrations, National Night Out, Back to School Supplies

Concerned Citizens of Northeast Greensboro, $1,000, Holiday Gathering

Eastside Park Neighborhood Association, $4,046, Technology upgrades for the community center, National Night Out, Computer Lab Update, Summer Carnival

Gateway Plaza Resident Council, $2,000, Various resident outings and events

Hall Towers Resident Council, $3,000, National Night Out, Quarterly Birthday Celebrations, Christmas Dinner, Resident Outings

Hunter Hills Community Watch, $705, Community Watch Meetings and National Night Out

Lindley Park Neighborhood Association, $1,300, Various projects to Celebrate the Neighborhood's 100th Anniversary

Nealtown Neighborhood Association, $1,600, Various events and gatherings

Ray Warren Homes Resident Council, $2,300, Community Activities; Report Card Pickup; Cleanup Day; Teen Summit

River Birch Resident Council, $1,500, Various Youth Activities

Stoneridge Resident Council, $2,670, Various resident gatherings and outings

Terra Cotta Heritage Foundation, $3,000, Addition of a water well, chicken coop, and outhouse to the museum grounds

Terrace at Rocky Knoll, $1,400, National Night Out, Gardening, and Health Fair

Village at Northside, $500, National Night Out

Warnersville Community Coalition, $3,000, 150th Anniversary celebratory events

Willow Oaks Community Association, $1,000, Winter Wonderland Festival and National Night Out

2014 ($39,825)

Applewood Community, $1,000, Health and Wellness Classes; Educational Programming

Benbow Park Neighborhood Association, $500, National Night Out

Brookstone Community HOA, $2,250, Tree Plantings

Charles B. Aycock Neighborhood Association, $1,825, Community Garden Expansion and Upkeep

Claremont Court Resident Council, $2,000, Community Celebrations, School Supplies, Events, and Beautification

College Hill Neighborhood Association, $1,500, Develop a Neighborhood Guide

Downtown Residents Association, $500, Partners in City, Neighbors in Community (PICNIC – in collaboration with Elsewhere Collaborative”)

Eastside Park Neighborhood, $1,350, National Night Out, Summer Art Program, and Community Events

Foxworth Resident Council, $1,700, Resident Outings and Holiday Dinner

Gateway Plaza Resident Council, $500, National Night Out

Glen Haven Community Center, $2,000, Community Garden Expansion and Upkeep

Hall Towers Resident Council, $3,000, National Night Out, Celebrations, and Resident Outings

Hickory Trails Resident Council, $500, National Night Out
Historic Aycock Neighborhood / Charles B. Aycock Neighborhood Association

Hunter Hills Community Watch, $1,400, Community Meetings

Interactive Resource Center & Transition Greensboro, $2,000, Edible Community Garden

Margate on Cone Apartment Community, $2,500, Various classes for residents

Northeast Neighborhood Project (NEP), $1,500, National Night Out, Neighborhood Safety, and Resident Education

Old L. Richardson Neighborhood Watch Association, $2,000, National Night Out and Computer Lab

Ray Warren Homes Resident Council, $1,600, Various Resident Activities and Educational Events

Smith Homes Resident Council, $2,300, Teen Summits, Neighborhood Food Bank, National Night Out

Stoneridge Senior Community Resident Council, $500, National Night Out

Terra Cotta Heritage Foundation, $1,800, Museum Upkeep and Beautification

Textile Park, $3,000, C.O.I.N Event (Communities Taking Ownership by getting Involved and Networking)

Westerwood Neighborhood Association, $1,500, Neighborhood Sign Toppers

2013 ($20,800)

Charles B. Aycock Neighborhood, $1,000, Festivals and Workshops

Dudley Heights, $1,500, Street Sign Toppers

Hunter Hills, $1,000, Community Watch Programming, Exercise Classes, and Events Support

Terra Cotta, $1,500, Museum Technology Upgrades

Coventry Glen, $1,500, National Night Out, Walking Team, and Baseball Clinic

Nealtown Neighborhood, $1,500, Various Community Gatherings

Old L. Richardson Neighborhood Association, $2,000, Computers and Training

Rosewood Neighborhood Association – Women's Learning Group, $3,000, Community Garden

Claremont Courts Resident Council, $3,000, Cultural Festival, Holiday Gatherings, and Event Support

Eastside Park Neighborhood Association, $1,450, Fall Festival

Fisher Park Neighborhood Association, $500, Transfer and Digitization of Neighborhood Archives

Gateway Plaza Resident Council, $2,850, Resident Outings and Holiday Events

2012 ($36,640)

Fisher Park, $800, Archive historical materials

Gateway Plaza, $1,000, Various gatherings and outings

Hunter Hills, $2,785, Health improvement, newsletter, National Night Out, and gatherings

Nealtown Neighborhood, $3,000, Website, Spring Social, and National Night Out

State St. Community, $2,000, Expand community garden

Terra Cotta Community, $1,000, Heritage Festival

Rosewood Neighborhood, $2808, Women's Learning Group materials, space and park beautification

East White Oak Community, $1,000, Books, art and reception for the David Richmond Resource Room and Open House

Ehwell Community, $2,000, Youth Motivational Event with national speaker

Concerned Citizens of the Northeast, $2,000, Health and Wellness series

CoCom Community, $2,997, Mentoring and Enrichment Program

Glen Haven Apartments, $2,500, Variety of assimilation classes

Glenwood, $2,000, First year's newsletters for 1200 households

Hunter Glen Apartments, $4,000, Computer lab and classes

Terra Cotta Heritage Foundation, $2,000, Community Garden

Warnersville, $1,000, Annual Music and Heritage Festival

CoCom Community, $2,000, College Readiness Program

Glenwood, $1,000, Multi-Cultural Festival, Glenfest

Sedgefield Lakes, $1,000, Rejuvenate Lake Shore

South Elm Alliance, $750, Community Dinner and Micro-grant Program

2011 ($32,600)

Hall Towers, $1,500, Outings and gatherings for residents

Hunter Hills Community Watch, $2,000, Health and enrichment activities for residents

River Birch, $2,000, Health and social activities for residents

South Elm Alliance, $750, Multi-community dinner with micro grant initiative

Terra Cotta Heritage Foundation, $3,000 Terra Cotta Day Festival

The Village at Northside, $3,000, Kaboom playground for community

Greater Glenwood Neighborhood Association, $3,000 Website and newsletter design and development

River Birch Resident Council, $2,410, Operations Smart Choices Creative outlet and skills building for Youth

Storrington Community, $3,000, Walking for a Healthy You Program

Applewood Resident Council, $1,000, Monthly community meetings

East White Oak, $3,000, Computer Center

Hall Towers, $1,000, Various social gatherings

Hickory Trails, $3,000, Community Library for reading, tutoring, exercise club, scouts, meetings, etc.

Oakwood Forest, $3,000, Community center for meetings

Stoneridge Residents Council, $1,000, Various social gatherings

2010 ($33,325)

Four Seasons, $1675, Wellness, health and green initiatives, school supplies, and field trips for youth

Hall Towers, $1200, Community activities and field trips

Hunter Hills Community Watch, $1500, Healthy living Initiatives, community events, beautification, and printing

Ole Asheboro, $2000, Community garden

Ray Warren Community, $3000, P.E.A.C. E. Fest in Barber Park

Terra Cotta Community, $3000, Computer scanner and other equipment to archive the history of this community

Village at Northside, $750, Baseball team supplies and shirts

Warnersville Community Coalition, $3000, College tours for community youth

Charles B. Aycock, $3000, Health and sustainable living classes

Bluford Park, $500, National Night Out gathering

Concerned Citizens, $1000, Back to school gathering with school supplies

East White Oak, $3000, Yoga classes, nurse visits, and monthly fitness luncheon

East White Oak, $1000, Emergency grant to replace community center air conditioners

Charles B. Aycock, College Hill, and Fisher Park, $1500, Board Leadership and Community Building Forum

Brandt Village, $1,000, Add 7 beds to community garden

Claremont Courts, $3,000, Parent education; self-awareness; self-esteem; and career building skills

Hampton Homes, $1,000, Youth and Adult Programs

Smith Homes, $2,200, Youth and seniors gatherings/outings; abused persons programs; NNO; awards for volunteers

2009 ($32,355)

Ardmore Park, $1,000, Neighborhood Communications

Aycock Neighborhood, $1,000, Community Garden

Gateway Plaza, $2,000, Activities for residents

Greater Glenwood Neighborhood Association, $2,000, Multi-cultural Festival

Hunter Hills West, $700, Newsletter and National Night Out

Ole Asheboro, $3,000, Celebration of a month of cleanup including unemployed residents

Sedgefield Lakes, $1,000, Community Garden

South Elm Neighborhood Alliance, $1,000, Public art and meal to cultivate interaction with diverse residents

Warnersville Community Coalition, $3,000, Leadership and other educational programs to include youth and elderly

Warnersville Historical and Beautification Society, $1500, Community Festival in conjunction with rededication of Shalonda Poole Park

Brandt Village, $2,000, Community garden

Cardinal Manor, $2,000, Community garden

Concerned Citizens of the Northeast, $1,000, Back to school celebration and supplies for students

Greater Glenwood Neighborhood, $970, Health related cooking, massage and living workshops

Hope Valley Community Watch, $2,000, National Night Out and community fair – revitalizing neighborhood organization

Poplar Ridge, $3,000, Participatory Design Module – community planning

Village at Northside, $740, Various crime fighting items

Willow Oaks Neighborhood, $500, National Night Out celebration

Heath Community Organization, $1,720, Various community gatherings

Warnersville Community Coalition, $1,500, Enrichment and teaching programs for youth, seniors and families

Warnersville Historical and Beautification Society, $725, Heritage Festival and Walking History Parade

2008 ($33,706)

Dudley Heights, $880, Neighborhood Historical Brochure

Eastside Park, $1500 Series of workshops of interest to the community

Gateway Plaza Residents, $2,950, Community building activities for elderly residents

Greater Glenwood, $3,000, Multicultural Festival

Hall Towers, $2,500, Community building for elderly residents

Hunter Hills West, $1,500, Newsletter and gatherings

The Woodlea Association, $2,500, Water pipe and landscaping

Charles B. Aycock, $3,000, Series of participatory community events designed to demonstrate that living green is healthy and fun

Bluford Park, $500, National Night Out

Four Seasons, $700, National Night Out and book bags/supplies for children

Guilford Hills Unification, $500, October Fling

Northeast Neighborhood Project, $3,000, Safe Neighborhood Training, Computer Classes, Reading, and Professional Training

Pear Leaf Apartments, $1,000 Field trips and physical activities

Concerned Citizens of Northeast Greensboro, $1,000, 10th Anniversary Celebration

Four Seasons, $1,500, Support sick and shut in neighbors with gift baskets; Adopt a family from the neighborhood school

New Brandywine, $2,500, Community vegetable garden

Stoneridge Resident Council, $2,000, Various community activities

Village at Northside, $1,406, Community Watch, beautification, solar lights, and outreach

Warnersville Historical and Beautification Society, $1,500, Community Festival in conjunction with rededication of Shalonda Poole Park

Neighborhood Leaders, $270, Registration for MCWLCHF Community Obesity Conference

2007 ($9,205 only 1 cycle due to staffing turnover)

Aycock Neighborhood Association, $750, National Night Out activities

Bluford Neighborhood Association, $455, National Night Out and beautification

Country Park Neighborhood Association, $1,000, beautification around recently drained pond

Gateway Plaza Residents Community, $2,750, Community building activities for residents

Hunter Hills West, $1,250, Day in the park to increase neighborhood participation

Ole Asheboro, $3,000, Creation of newsletter and community website

2006 ($21,973)

Arlington Park Neighborhood Association, $3,805, Enrichment and technology academy for school age children

Bluford Park Community Association, $500, National Night Out activities and computer capability

East White Oak Community Center Council, $2,574, Improved indoor lighting for facility to enhance ability to offer programming (including afterschool tutorial)

Gateway Plaza Resident Council, $2,550, Various activities to increase a sense of community and enhance fellowship among residents

Glenwood Neighborhood Association, $2,743, Replace deteriorated landscaping for Community Center (neighborhood to supply labor and City to assist with planning/supervision)

Hampton Homes Community, $1,650, Play equipment and community activities

Lindley Park Neighborhood, $1,600, Improving signage and communications

Warnersville Neighborhood Coalition, up to $3,000, Produce a brochure on neighborhood history for increasing awareness of the community's heritage and encouraging participation in community activities via (to be decided) reusable signs announcing neighborhood meetings

Westerwood Neighborhood Association, $500, Beautification of entry and enhancement of community involvement

Woodlea Association, $3,051, Beautification and safety improvements to entrance of community (includes costs of preserving two special, large trees)

2005 ($22,200)

Rosewood Neighborhood Association, $2,400, Spring Fling Celebration

Stoneridge Resident Council, $2,000, Community events and activities

Bluford Park Community Association, $800, National Night Out activities and community building

Dudley Heights Neighborhood Association, $3,000, Membership and participation development in neighborhood association

Gateway Plaza Resident Council, $3,000, Community events and activities

Glenwood Neighborhood Association, $3,000, Community events and activities

Hampton Homes Resident Council, $1,250, Girl Scouts Troop start-up funding

Lakespring Court Resident Council, $1,500, Community events and activities

Ray Warren Homes Resident Council, $500, Community events and activities

Silver Briar Resident Council, $500, Community events and activities

Old L. Richardson Neighborhood Watch, $650, Production of newsletter and flyers

Gate Ridge Community, $600, Beautification project and two community events

Smith Homes Resident Council, $3,000, Teen summit, domestic violence workshops, and a community celebration

2004 ($19,776)

Eastside Park Neighborhood Association, $1,320, Christmas holiday celebration

Greenfield Community Homes, $700, National Night Out activities

Hall Towers Resident Council, $2,000, Community-building events for residents, including a Thanksgiving dinner and Christmas party

Heath Community Organization, $2,837, Start-up funding

Heath Park Community, $2,269, Fall Festival inaugural community event

Kings Forest Neighborhood Association, $1,000, Various activities, including National Night Out, a 9/11 vigil, and holiday luminaries

Laurel Oaks Resident Council, $1,500, Effective parenting classes

Ray Warren Homes, $2,500, Community Carnival

River Birch Resident Council, $2,000, Community-building events

Sedgefield Lakes Community Organization, $1,500, Legal expenses associated with changing the structure of the homeowner's dues collection

Westbury Neighborhood Association, $2,150, Community-building event

2003 ($39,288)

Arlington Park Neighborhood Association, $2,000, Enrichment and technology academy afterschool and weekend program in collaboration with Gillespie Elementary School

Bluford Park Community Association, $1,300, National Night Out event and supplies

Charles B. Aycock Neighborhood Association, $2,910, Two events at Sternberger Park (a summer picnic and a National Night Out celebration)

Concerned Citizens of Northeast Greensboro, $2,200, Engaging 20 neighborhoods in a Participatory Design Module (PDM) project

East Greensboro Coalition, $1,100, Workshop of 30 leaders of East Greensboro neighborhoods

Eastside Park Community Center, $1,600, Spring Fling event that will involve the neighborhood in the Community Center through a survey and meetings

Fox Trail Neighborhood Association, $1,000, Start-up assistance for neighborhood association

Greenfield Community Homes, $1,000, National Night Out community event and Winter Fest outing

Greensboro Neighborhood Congress, $1,256, Start-up costs for the nonprofit organization

Hampton Homes Resident Council, $2,900, Expense for to support three baseball teams for youth

Hampton Homes Resident Council, $2,500, Starting a neighborhood preschool program for children ages 2-5 years old

Hickory Trails Resident Council, $3,000, Activities for youth and older adults, and a summer Community Fun Day

Northeast Neighborhood Recreation Project at Genesis Baptist Church, $3,000, Continuation of project and planned activities in the Bessemer Avenue area including tutoring events, health fairs, and youth activities

Old L. Richardson Neighborhood Watch Association, $2,000, Two neighborhood events, including a get to know your neighbor dinner

Ray Warren Homes Resident Council, $5,000, Job skills training program for women from the community in technology

Rosewood Neighborhood Association, $950, National Night Out event

Rosewood Neighborhood Association, $350, Membership cards and meeting flyers and announcements

Summer Enrichment Program of Bethel A.M.E. Church, $3,000, Summer enrichment program for neighborhood children in grades 1-5

VanPineHolden Community Watch As One, $2,222, Start-up costs for a community watch group

2002 ($31,197)

Ardmore Community Crime Watch, $880, Crime watch program efforts

Bluford Park Community Association, $800, Planting project in a neighborhood park to help create a pleasant and safe area for local resident to walk and exercise

East Greensboro Coalition, $3,000, Research and writing of the development of several neighborhoods in East Greensboro and including the history of the White Street Landfill

Friendly Neighborhood Council, $300, "National Night Out 2002" program

Lake Spring Court Housing, $3,000, Community building activities for fall, winter and spring 2003

Laurel Oaks Resident Council, $3,000, Two neighborhood celebrations to bring neighbors together

Northeast Neighborhood Recreation Project (Genesis Baptist Church) $2,973, Special outreach to serve the surrounding neighborhood through fall fun events for neighborhood youth and their families

Ray Warren Homes Resident Council, $2,000, Establish a neighborhood children's baseball team (membership fees, equipment and community building events)

Ray Warren Homes Resident Council, $3,000, Develop the Kids Club enrichment program for families with young children

River Birch Resident Council, $1,844, Community building activities for youth and adults, including celebrations

Summer Enrichment Program of Bethel AME Church, $3,000, Create a day camp program for neighborhood children ages 3-16 years old.

Washington Park Walking Club (Hampton Academy), $1,400, Washington Park Walkers community walking program

Washington Elementary School, $3,000, Community Wellness Center to provide comprehensive wellness services to the surrounding community

Westerwood Neighborhood Association, $3,000, Matching funds for renovation of Lake Daniel Park

2001 ($16,000)

River Birch Resident Council, $1,000, Planning and a series of events for youth focusing on beautification and landscaping

Hampton Homes Resident Council, $3,000, Youth sports activities

Bluford Park Community Association, $3,000, Expanding "night out" activities and to assist residents in creating an entrance to their neighborhood area

Northeast Changing Faces of Tomorrow, $3,000, Neighborhood clean-up day, neighborhood winter celebration event, and other community education events

Northeast Changing Faces of Tomorrow, $3,000, Neighborhood planning process for activities and for a Spring Fling event

Ole Asheboro Neighborhood Association, $3,000, Leadership development program